1. Neustrelitz (9 November 1951)

25X1

There are indications that the troops of the garrisons at Papenberg, Zierker Strasse, Schloss and the area north of Glambecker See have returned from the autumn maneuvers. It is believed that these garrisons are manned by the three tank regiments of 9th Guards Tank Division as well as by the engineer battalion of this division. Several vehicle [] belonging to these units were reported.

2. Neubrandenburg (9 November 1951)

The "Unter den Eichen" barracks are probably manned by a self-propelled artillery regiment of the 9th Guards Tank Division as well as by the 413th Pontoon Bridge Battalion. Vehicle [] of both these units have been observed there. Six jet fighters were observed at Trollenhagen airfield. Inhabitants of Trollenhagen stated that there had been no air activity for almost two weeks.

3. Parchim (10 November 1951)

The barracks on both sides of Karl Marx Strasse, are occupied by units of 18th Mechanized Division, which have returned from maneuvers. The airfield appears still to be occupied by a fighter regiment. Twenty different MiG-15s have been observed at the field.

4. Ludwigslust (10 November 1951)

The former Reiter-Kaserne is manned by units of the 59th Mechanized Regiment of the 18th Mechanized Division. A local merchant of unknown reliability reported that several new units, arrived late in October, were estimated at a strength corresponding to two companies. Among these there are believed to be a construction unit and a demolition unit. The barracks at Techentin Airfield are occupied by components of the 18th Mechanized Division.

5. Schwerin (11 November 1951)

Activities indicate the return of troops from maneuvers. Units of the 94th Guards Motorized Division were observed. All barracks were occupied, but there was no work going on.
